

Abandons Effort To Form A Ministry

BERLIN, November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Dr. Heinrich Brüning, who at President Ebert's request has been endeavoring to form a ministry, abandoned the effort today because of his inability to find sufficient Reichstag support for a cabinet under his chancellorship.

President Ebert thereupon began negotiations with the leaders of the bourgeois parties for the formation of a five party bloc unincorporative of the Socialists.

Up to this noon none of the parties had proposed a candidate for the chancellorship.

Germany thus is still without a government after an interval of four days since the resignation of the Stresemann ministry, which is, however, still nominally functioning as an interim. Dr. Brüning's lack of success was attributed to the decision of all the political parties in the Reichstag to oppose a non-partisan cabinet.

Rev. Charles P. Anderson, Episcopal bishop of Chicago, has announced. Plans for an Episcopal Seminary to be erected on the site have been prepared.

With six foot wave lengths the general said he had obtained excellent results over a distance of two miles. The apparatus used was a three foot wire while the intensity of the oscillation did not exceed 50 milli-amperes.

High School Boys Held For Taking Autos

CONNEAUT, O., November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Twenty boys, mostly high school pupils, ranging in age from 16 to 18, were to appear in probate court today following their arrest on charges of taking automobiles without the owners' consent. Following the arrest of two of the lads Saturday night in an automobile belonging to Mayor D. S. Braze, it developed that some of the youths had been taking automobiles for joy rides, without the owners' consent, for a year.

The two arrested lads implicated others and details of the boys' activities were revealed with each succeeding arrest.

A large assortment of keys for various types of automobile locks was taken from the boys. Several of the cars taken by the joy riders were partially wrecked when found by the owners.

Coolidge to Await Return of Daugherty

WASHINGTON, November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—President Coolidge will await the return to Washington of Attorney General Daugherty who now is in Columbus, O., before taking action on the appeal for a pardon for Charles L. Craig, controller for New York City, who is under sentence to six days in jail for contempt of court. The department of justice meanwhile will continue its study of the case and reports are to be submitted from time to time to the president. Solicitor General Beck already has furnished the executive with information he requested yesterday. With these reports and information at hand, Mr. Coolidge is expected to take action one way or the other after a conference with Mr. Daugherty.

Coolidge Gives View On His Attitude

WASHINGTON, November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—President Coolidge's position on the Philippine independence question is based on the belief of the United States to withdraw from the islands as soon as it considers the people capable of self government. To this, the president feels excellent progress is being made.

The statement of the president's position was obtained today in connection with the arrival in the United States of a new Philippine mission seeking independence for the islands. It conforms to that expressed a year ago by President Harding to a mission headed by Manuel Quezon.

Mr. Coolidge believes that the United States should keep faith with the promise made in the Jones act of ultimate independence for the Philippines and that while the time possibly has not come for execution of that promise, encouraging steps have been made toward the goal. Meanwhile, the United States, in the opinion of the president, should continue to contribute what it can to the training of the Filipinos in good government through the maintenance in the islands of a capable and effective system of administration.

Now, Girls! Your Silk Hose Allowance Large

NEW YORK, November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—A $20 a week working girl should spend 22 per cent of her income or $228.80 a year for her wardrobe, which should include lots of silk stockings, but no fur coats, according to an exhibition arranged by the Plymouth Church Institute of Brooklyn.

There are wardrobes for $20, $35 and $50 a week sales were made from underwear to coats, from shoes to handkerchiefs. No fur coats are included, but even the $20 budget provides a fur collar, a winter coat, a sport coat, three dresses, a skirt, a sweater, blouses and three hats. When one gets to $50 a suit is included and the underwear is silk.

The exhibit, which was organized by Mrs. Newell Dwight Hillis, wife of the pastor of the church, was planned with the modern business girl strictly in mind. The silk stocking allowance is especially large.

Policeman Forced To Drive For Bandits

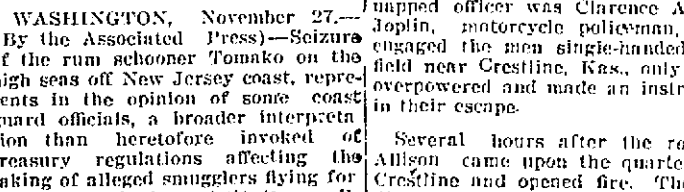

JOPLIN, MO., November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—A captured policeman was forced to drive to freedom four bandits who participated in the hold-up of the Bank of Aubrey, at Aubrey, Mo., yesterday. The kidnaped officer was Clarence Allison, Joplin, motorcycle policeman, who engaged the men single-handed in a field near Crestline, Kas., only to be overpowered and made an instrument in their escape.

Several hours after the robbery Allison came upon the quarry near Crestline and opened fire. The bandits abandoned their motor car and took to a field. Allison headed his automobile into the field but he became mired and he continued the pursuit, cut off three of the bandits and started marching toward the road. A gun pressed against his back and a command to "drop that gun" announced a rescue by the fourth bandit. Returning to their car with Allison the bandits found the machine stalled and commanded a car belonging to J. A. Lucas, "Col. ambus, Kas. Allison was forced to drive the car south nearly to the Oklahoma line where under cover of darkness he was released.

Approximately $1,200 was obtained by the bandits. Two bags of silver were left behind in their stalled car. Leaving the bank the bandits were subjected to a heavy fire and a running gun fight that extended more than fifteen miles into Kansas before they ceased pursuit.

Seized Under
Old Regulations
WASHINGTON, November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Seizure of the rum schooner Tomako on the high seas off New Jersey coast, represents in the opinion of some coast guard officials, a broader interpretation than heretofore invoked of treasury regulations affecting the taking of alleged smugglers flying for their lives while beyond the three mile limit.

Treasury officials, however, emphasized today that the schooner which was flying the British flag was taken into custody Sunday under regulations already in effect and that the policy of seizing rum ships outside the three mile limit would be continued wherever adequate evidence was obtained that they were in contact with the shore in such a way as to establish constructive presence in American waters. No change in the regulations, it was said, has been made.

The seizure was made at the request of the department of justice, it was announced, on the basis of evidence it had gathered as to the alleged activities of the Tomako.

Opposed to Inheritance Of Huge Fortunes

BIG RAPIDS, MICH., November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Senator Woodbridge N. Ferris is opposed to fortunes being used to the discretion of heirs and will go to Washington prepared to boost legislation that would all but absorb inheritances, he said here last night in his "home town" far-west.

Young men and women, he said, would be better off and make higher marks in the world if they started life with little.

Distribute Bogus Money

ST. PAUL, MINN., November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Federal secret service agents operating here believe that three persons, one a woman, under arrest, are connected with a national counterfeiting organization which has grown up in connection with the activities of rum runners off Highlands, N. J., and other Atlantic seaboard points.

The agents say that fake money passed by the three is similar to that appearing in other sections of the country, especially on the Atlantic coast.

The department of justice in Newark, N. J., is co-operating with the secret service in investigating wholesale passing of worthless paper in payment for liquor off the New Jersey coast, according to information received here.

Capital Jumpy Over New Congress

(By David Lawrence)
(Copyright, 1923)
WASHINGTON, November 27.—One week before the opening of Congress finds the National Capitol in a state of nervousness over the various situations that are developing and are likely to develop.

1. There's a fight in the House over the leadership between Representative Graham, of Illinois, and Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, on the theory that holding the balance of power they will be able to force the selection of their own members for important committee chairmanships.

2. The departure of Vice President Coolidge in the desk of presiding officer of the United States Senate makes it necessary to choose a permanent President of the Senate, and Senator Cullum, of Iowa, who was Senate President Pro Tem during the last session whenever Mr. Coolidge was absent, is in line for the position. But if he takes it Mr. Cullum may be forced to relinquish the Chairmanship of the Committee on Interstate Commerce and under the seniority rule Robert M. La Follette, senior Senator from Wisconsin, having served the longest in that committee, becomes entitled to the Chairmanship. Out of the Interstate Commerce Commission comes bills relating to railroad and transportation matters. Mr. La Follette would like great deal of influence in shaping the government's policy in shipping the government's mail, road policy—or at least sufficient power to keep the railroads on the anxious seat with respect to that clause of the transportation act, which permits them to make a five-and-one-half-per-cent return on their investment.

Mr. Cullum wants to be President Pro Tem. Senator Cabot Lodge favors him for the position and doesn't see any reason why Mr. Cullum should not be President Pro Tem.

Episcopalians Plan Seven Million Fund

CLEVELAND, O., November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—More than 350 clergymen from 110 Ohio Episcopal parishes, attended a banquet and rally here last night, in preparation for the December 2 to 9 campaign in the state to raise $7,000,000 as part of the fund of $7,000,000 for financing Episcopalian foreign and domestic activities in 1924. Cleveland's share of the state total is $190,725.

To Present Ford's Views

WASHINGTON, November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—E. G. Lohd, vice president of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton, Henry Ford's railroad, notified the interstate commerce commission today that he was willing to appear before it next Tuesday to present his company's views on railroad consolidation.

A hearing was set for that day. The railroad states marshaled at Detroit had returned to the commission a subpoena for Mr. Lohd, marked "not found." The Ironton official himself informed the commission, however, that he had not known of its desire to procure his attendance.

The Detroit, Toledo and Ironton is the only road in the country which has failed to put evidence asked for into the commission's record on consolidation.

Cleveland Continues In Grip Of Bandits

CLEVELAND, O., November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Three armed bandits escaped with $8,000 in cash, two diamond rings and a watch in a hold-up at the John Olderman Dry Goods Company this morning. Two bandits covered Olderman with revolvers while his son, John Jr., was forced to open the safe from which the third robber took the money and jewelry.

In addition to this morning's daring hold-up, police still powerless to check the wave of rampant banditry upon the city, were confronted with eight new and unsolved hold-ups netting the robbers nearly $1,000 in cash and jewelry valued at $2,500.

Eighteen thugs and gunmen are known to have participated in the series of robberies that started late yesterday afternoon with the daring hold-up near the downtown section of two officials of the Dangler Store Company, the theft of their automobile, cash and jewelry, continued through the evening with the successful robbing of two shoe shops, a grocery store, a bakery wagon, a restaurant and a pedestrian and ended shortly after midnight with the looting of an all-night luncheon room.

Liquor Parley Opens In Canada

OTTAWA, November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Representatives of the United States begin today their discussion of means to end liquor smuggling across the border. Vigorous opposition from anti-prohibition forces in the Dominion is expected to proposals which the United States will submit at the international conference, involving changes in legislation before they could be made effective.

With control of the liquor traffic in the hands of provincial authorities, general revision of existing laws would be required to enforce the tentative American proposals. These provide for prohibition by Canada of clearance of ships destined for United States ports with liquor cargoes; search and seizure of vessels engaged in liquor smuggling on the Great Lakes; obligation of vessels to proceed to port for which they clear; reports by Canadian officials to the United States of all liquor shipments by automobiles or aeroplanes.

Note:—The test at High School Auditorium was made by Glen Ellison, the world-famous baritone. He compared his living voice with its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. There was no difference between the living voice and the RE-CREATED voice.

The New Edison stands absolutely alone in this achievement; no other phonograph has ever sustained this test of comparison.

Old Bottling Plant in West End Guttled By Fire; Adjoining Properties Menaced

Fire of undetermined origin about 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning almost completely destroyed two three-story brick structures on the north side of Second street just west of Madison and for a while threatened adjoining dwellings.

The two old brick structures, one unoccupied and the other with two upper floors insured were gutted beyond repair and the brick walls are in such shape that they will have to be razed. The buildings were used as a storage and bottling plant by the Portsmouth Whistle Company.

Of late the ground floor of the east building had been used as a storage place for barroom fixtures owned by Otto Lauffer, whose loss on the fixtures will be about $800, with no insurance. Paul Esselhorn, now of Cincinnati, and George Zeisler, of the Zeisler Garin Company, Lucasville, are owners of the two brick structures built with only the one wall between.

Awakened by Smoke
The fire was discovered by Mrs. Gobel Case, of Second and Madison streets, who was awakened by smoke pouring in her open bedroom window shortly after 2:15 a. m. She smelled wood burning on awakening and then saw the bright glare caused by the fire only four dwellings away from her home. She awakened her husband, who turned in the alarm which brought firemen from the Seventh street and East End companies to the scene. The fire had gained rapid headway and it was with difficulty that the flames were confined to the brick buildings. Firemen for a while gave their attention to adjoining property and succeeded in checking fire that caught the weather boarding on the side of the Ed Ash home, a two-story frame double house just east of the burning structure. Considerable damage was caused to the interior of the house by water. All contents were ruined and with little damage. The John Robinson family also moved out from the other side of the double house which is owned by Mrs. Mary Severs, of Fourth street. The Alvin Shields family in the brick and frame structure across the alley west of the old bottling and storage plant was ready to move out, but the flames were fought from that side of the building and within a short time all danger of the flames spreading in that direction passed, although there was danger of falling walls.

Davis Removed
Jasper Davis, 70, who has been bed-ridden for some time, was carried by policemen from one of the adjacent houses to a house some distance from the fire.

The fire is thought to have started in the frame part of the east building and within a short time communicated to the interior woodwork of the structure. The buildings have been standing for a number of years and the interior burned quickly. The flames swept upward through the rear part of the buildings to the front of the west structure where the roof was destroyed within a few minutes. Before the flames could be checked all the roof had been destroyed and part of the third floor had fallen in.

Firemen returned to the scene this morning and tore down part of the walls that looked as if they might fall any minute. Despite the danger of falling walls early this morning a large number of West End citizens, who were awakened by the fire trucks, assisted the firemen in handling the several lines of hose.

Mr. Zeisler did not learn of the fire early this morning and went to his work at Lucasville as usual. About 10 o'clock he was notified of the damage to the property which has been under his care since Mr. Esselhorn located in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Oda Case, Second and Madison streets, prepared and served hot coffee to the firemen while they were busy fighting the flames.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Has Also Proven Remarkably Successful in Severe Cases of Rheumatic Neuritis.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrin, to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenrin with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. Another Stockdale Well Yields Oil

Well No. 6 sunk by the Stockdale Oil and Gas Company promises to be a big producer, even larger than No. 5, which is running five barrels steadily. According to advices received the barren sand was struck at the 381 foot level yesterday when the well was shot, forty quarts of nitroglycerine being used.

The new well is located on the Oscar Brown farm, three miles east of Stockdale, and an interested crowd of spectators was on hand to witness the baling test given the well today.

Who Will Be Chief at Catlettsburg?

CATLETTSBURG, KY., Nov. 27.—Lambert or Hedrick, which will be Chief of Police next year? This continues to be an unanswered query in the Cat City, where both Allen Lambert and Henry Hedrick claim that they have been legally elected to the position. Hedrick was elected in the election held on Tuesday, November 6, of that there is no doubt; but Lambert claims he was elected for four years in November 1921, and that his term will not expire until January 1, 1926.

mins couldn't retain the committee Chairmanship, too. That would be all right if Mr. LaFollette and his friends counted, but they want to run things in the Interstate Commerce Committee and if they do not get what they want they can overthrow the whole Republican organization by simply uniting with the Democrats. The Republican majority is slender and the support of the LaFollette group is needed to carry on Republican parliamentary maneuvers throughout the session.

Senator LaFollette is a sick man. He hasn't been very much in evidence during the last three weeks that he has been in Washington. Some of his close friends say he has an attack of the grip. Others hint that his illness is more serious. Anyway, it will probably become apparent whether he is in physical condition for the battle in the next Congress when the Senate convenes. Mr. LaFollette is usually in his seat on such occasions.

The Presidency of the Senate carries with it an increase in salary of $4,500 above the regular salary of $7,500 received by Senators, and friends of Senator Cummings think the "old man," as they affectionately call him, should have the added compensation as he isn't a wealthy man and has spent most of his life in the public service not only in Washington, but in his home state of Iowa, where he gave his energies to the Governorship in legislative battles which are still the talk of the Middle West.

While these situations are developing inside the Republican party, the Democrats are girding their loins for a fight that may rival in interest their adroit tactics in the middle of the Taft administration when in 1910 the Democrats took advantage of the misplays of their opponents who were divided and managed to appear before the public as a united party keen to reduce the cost of living.

Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, leader of the Democrats, in his statement denying that the Democrats will play politics with the tax reduction program, is laying the foundation for a campaign that will not make it possible for the country to charge the Democrats with wrecking the tax program, though it is Garrett's own admission that the Republican party will make all the necessary attempts to frustrate the policy of the administration without any assistance from the Democrats. Mr. Garrett's pronouncement is considered a wise one from the viewpoint of strategy as it places the Democratic party in the position of wanting to aid in tax reduction—an admittedly popular policy, but it doesn't commit the Democrats to specific aid as against the radicals though when the showdown comes enough Democratic votes probably will be mustered to save the situation from becoming hopelessly locked. The atmosphere is nevertheless one of great uncertainty and doubt as the day of the session approaches.

Morrow Appointed To Succeed Barton--But Luther Hasn't Quit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. — Edwin P. Morrow, who will retire as governor of Kentucky, next month, today accepted appointment by President Coolidge as a member of the Railroad Labor Board, succeeding R. M. Barton, who has resigned. Gov. Morrow will retire upon his new duties soon after December 11, when his term as governor expires. His appointment is in accordance with an agreement entered into by President Harding when Judge Barton was appointed last spring. Gov. Morrow was urged for that time and was offered the place, but asked, if it was understood that he was to be allowed to serve out his term as governor. Mr. Harding thereupon persuaded Judge Barton to continue on the board until Gov. Morrow could take over his duties. The place which Gov. Morrow will take on the board is as a member of the public group. A statement in Chicago today by Judge Barton that he had not resigned, White House officials explained that it was the understanding at the White House that Judge Barton had accepted the appointment to serve only until Governor Morrow completed his term of office and would be able to take up the duties of a member of the board. It was pointed out also that Judge Barton had been serving under a recess appointment and that necessarily his nomination of that of another person would have to be submitted to the Senate when Congress reconvenes next month.

Barton Is Surprised.
CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Judge R. M. Barton, former chairman of the United States Railroad Labor Board, said today that he had not resigned when informed that Gov. Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky had accepted President Coolidge's appointment to succeed him as a member of the public group of the board. "I hadn't heard of Gov. Morrow's appointment and I haven't resigned," Judge Barton said. He refused to comment on a reported agreement with the late President Harding by which he was to continue on the board until Gov. Morrow's term as Kentucky's chief executive expired. Judge Barton was named in a recess appointment by President Harding last spring.

Crime Wave Continues. In New York City

NEW YORK, November 27.—(By the A. P.)—Three store holdups and three safe robberies today were added to the deluge of crime of the police attempt to wipe from the city's crime ledger a pre-holiday wave of holdup and robberies, which has continued sporadically for more than a fortnight. Arrests were made in seven recent crime cases; others were followed in two week-end murders and one man began a 20 years' life imprisonment full term for wife slaying. The holdup today of a United Cigar Store in West 125th street was the most daring robbery since the November 11 of two West End Bank messengers who were robbed of $12,500. Two well dressed men, entering the store, forced the clerk through a

HER BOY HAD ALWAYS BEEN WEAK AND PUNY

Now he eats everything in sight and romps with playmates.

"My four year old boy had been weak and puny since birth, and had constipation and indigestion. Nothing did him any good until we tried Milk's Emulsion. Since using it, he can't get enough to eat and has outgrown his childhood trouble. He plays out with the children now, and he was never able to do that before."
—Wm. Hart, 424 Bundy Ave., New Castle, Ind.

Weak, ailing children usually start eating and getting stronger from the very first bottle of Milk's Emulsion. Most children like to take it, because it really tastes good. A trial costs nothing. Milk's Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action; it is a truly corrective medicine, doing away with all need of pills and physic. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food and thus build flesh and strength. Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened; it is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Wins Corn Husking Contest

DES MOINES, IA., Nov. 27.—John Rickelman of Mount Hamilton, Ia., won what is said to be the first interstate corn husking contest ever held in the United States when he defeated E. D. Paul of Ipa, Ill., in a husking match in a corn field near here today. After deductions and corrections were made by L. D. Barnett of Iowa State College, umpire, Rickelman was credited with having husked 44.6 bushels in 2 hours and 20 minutes, while Paul was credited with 40.5 bushels. Paul's total suffered a deduction for the 62 pounds of corn he missed in his rows, while Rickelman's deductions were only 22 pounds. Rickelman won the state tournament here Saturday. Paul represented Illinois because he had a mark of 234 bushels in 10 hours. Sponsors of today's contest hope to make it an annual event, and to include more states in the competition in future contests.

Once Again

We want to mention why it is that we can afford to sell home furnishings of the better kind at prices so much less than those charged elsewhere, and on easier terms of credit. The reason is this: We operate the largest chain of furniture stores in the Tri-State region, consequently we buy in tremendous quantities and are enabled to buy at better prices than the less fortunately situated stores that must needs purchase in smaller quantities and at higher prices. We give our customers the advantage of our immense buying power. We share our savings with them. Then, too, we do a great volume of business, we keep our stocks turning over and our goods moving all the time. Naturally, we can—and do—sell for less.

A good overstuffed living room suite will make a most desirable Christmas gift.

MAY STOP BRIDGE PARTIES IN IRONTON

The Irontonian says:

There has been no little resentment expressed here over the fact that while a number of men have been indicted for betting by the last grand jury a still greater number, it is alleged, have been allowed to escape and there has been rumors as to a demand that the grand jury bring indictments against all those participating in bridge and euchre parties.

Without going into the merits of the complaints as to who has been indicted for gambling, and who has not it would not be untimely, in view of the general discussion of these matters at the present time, to consider briefly just what constitutes gambling.

Under the statutes some bridge and euchre parties, it is true, contain all the elements of gambling. Others, however, do not. Under the law the transaction must contain the element of chance and there must be a consideration.

Gets 7 Months in Jail For Killing Man; Appeals Case

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., November 27.—Harry Porter, taxi operator, was sentenced to serve seven months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $500 by Judge D. E. Matthews yesterday.

On the second day of December, 1922, the defendant shot and killed Ed Saunders, taxi driver, and wounded his brother, Everett Saunders.

in a three cornered battle on and near the platform of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway station. Porter was himself seriously injured in the fray, escaping with deep gashes about the arms and back and contusions about the head from knife and hammer blows.

The defense will carry the case to the Supreme Court.

To Address Exchangeites

Members of the Exchange Club, who will not attend Wednesday night's meeting, will have real cause to regret it as from present indications the attendance will be 100 per cent as George A. Paff, superintendent of the city and port mill, Portsmouth Works, will be the speaker.

It is a splendid talker, humorous and interesting, and the Exchangeites are looking forward enthusiastically to his address.

BITTER TASTE, HEAD "SWIMS"

Signs That Black-Draught Is Needed To Help Eliminate Poisons—An Arkansas Woman's Experience

Hartfield, Ark.—"I have used Black-Draught for a number of years," says Mrs. C. V. Dale, of this place, "and I have never found any other liver medicine so good. When I get bilious, my head swims and I get a bitter taste in my mouth, then I know I must get something to eliminate the poison, so for years, when I would get this way, I would take the Black-Draught."

"I always feel better after taking two or three doses. It cleanses the system and my head quits swimming, and I feel like I can do my work. I have recommended it to others."

Biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, bitter taste, warn you that your liver is out of fix. Prompt treatment, with a dose or two of Theodor's Black-Draught, often will prevent serious illness. Bile poisons and other untoward matter should not be permitted to build in the system. Drive them out with Black-Draught, the old, long-established, well-known, purely vegetable powdered liver medicine.

Keep a package in your house, handy for immediate use.

Sold by good druggists everywhere.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I met a young boy some time ago. He is good looking; has black hair, and blue eyes. I have kept company with him for two weeks. He tells me he loves me and he has been nice to me that I can't help but believe he does. My mother doesn't like for me to go with him. She will not tell me why. I love him and I want to marry him. I told him I would give him an answer the 4th of December. There is but little difference in our ages. He is 19 and I am 17. Dolly, I don't believe I could care more for any other boy than I do for him. Please give me some advice. I am a widow.

SOCIAL NEWS

A well attended meeting of the Woman's City Club was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adolph I. Hurth, 833 Second street, with Mrs. Hurth, Mrs. Howard Williamson, Mrs. Dan W. Conroy and Mrs. Charles Waldron as hostesses.

In keeping with "Apple Week," which was recently celebrated throughout the country, Mrs. Edgar Poffenberger read an interesting paper on "The History of the Apple," after which each one present was given a nice big juicy apple, a gift from the J. M. Stockham Company.

An enjoyable part of the afternoon's program was the rendition of several musical numbers by the Junior Orchestra, composed of Lawrence Schuler, Edward Knoche, Ralph Hess, Charles Hurth and Charles Reitz. Among the pleasing numbers rendered were the "William Tell Overture," "Midnight Rose" and "Schubert's Serenade." They also responded to several poppy encores.

Miss Betty Worden also delighted those present with two piano selections, "Les Deux Alouettes" (The Two Larks) and "Liebestraum-Notturno III," which were very much enjoyed and appreciated.

"Facts of the A. P. Highway," which is of interest to everyone, was thoroughly explained by Mr. J. E. Dufenberg, an inspector of the Highway department, with headquarters in Columbus. Maps of this highway were also presented to those present.

The principal address of the afternoon was given by Mr. Edward Arpee, a teacher of American History in the Portsmouth High School. Mr. Arpee gave an instructive review of the Constitution from the beginning and explained the origin of each section. He said that some parts of it were taken from the Greek Republic, other parts from the Roman Law Givers, some from the French and English Philosophers, and some from the English Constitution and many parts of it were adopted from the laws of our own colonies which had already been established. Mr. Arpee said we should always be thankful every Thanksgiving that we have such a wonderful Constitution.

During the business session the Tree committee reported that they had made arrangements to have some Norway Maple trees set out around the Bond street school. It was also decided to furnish free milk to a number of children in the Kindergarten of the Campbell Avenue School, whose parents were unable to do so.

Mrs. Jessie Allen of Newport, Ky., who is the guest of Mrs. C. A. Zull of Offshore street, was the only out-of-town visitor present.

Mrs. A. Z. Blair of Waller street returned last evening from Cincinnati, where she was called by the illness and death of her aunt, who died in Christ Hospital last Thursday. The funeral took place from her old home in Bethel, Ohio.

Class No. 2 of the Grandview Avenue Christian church will hold a bake sale at Wedbrook's meat market on Clay street Wednesday. The sale starts at eight o'clock in the forenoon and continues throughout the day.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Beasley of 1817 Eighth street entertained at dinner Sunday at their summer home, "Timber Cottage," near Sciotoville. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Parker.

Miss Mary Margaret Fuller of Fourth street had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howell, Miss Mollie Bagley and Miss Edna Robinson, who motored down from Hamden for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams of 1409 Union street entertained at dinner Sunday. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nunley and daughter Charlotte of Sciotoville. Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough and children, Rosemary, Agnes, Grace and Gerald of New Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

The Just-a-ware Club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Flood of 1624 Sixth street.

A social and dinner dance will be given on Thursday evening of this week by the members of St. Peter's church, Dogwood Ridge, to which the general public is cordially invited. Dancing and refreshments, with good music, will be among the diversions of the evening and a general good time is promised all who attend.

Miss Marcella Billan will leave Thursday for Roanoke, Va., where she will spend Thanksgiving with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sauter.

If you are looking for a little present for this same college girl, let me suggest a brushed wool slip-over or "chappie" sweater. They are just the thing for campus and sports wear. Gaily colored as the sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks of the Winter Girl are these sports jackets of fluffy brushed wool. She may take her choice of solid hues, checks, plaids, or stripes.

DAVIS BAKING POWDER

Bake it BEST with DAVIS BAKING POWDER

In the social and financial life of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Ladies' Aid, all events lead up to the annual turkey supper. It occurs the week before Thanksgiving. This season it broke all former records, and the congregation has reason to congratulate the president and her loyal corps of helpers, who made the affair so successful. The reputation of this pre-Thanksgiving feast grows with the passing years, making the demand for tickets greater than the supply.

Mrs. Harry G. Cranston, the president, reports that eight hundred and fifty ($50) plates were served, all within two and a half hours, from four forty-five to seven-fifty o'clock. Such bountiful provision had been made that every one of the workers had plenty of turkey, and all the trimmings.

The entire church was open to accommodate the throng. Everyone had a comfortable seat in the auditorium until he or she was invited to the dining room. One hundred and sixty-five guests were served at each sitting.

Fifteen booths occupied the classrooms in the Sunday School auditorium. Here the various groups of the Aid offered for sale fancy and plain needlework and choice home-cooked food for the Thanksgiving dinner.

The financial report is not completed, but when it is made public it will be found to be highly satisfactory.

Miss Mary Margaret Fuller of Fourth street had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howell, Miss Mollie Bagley and Miss Edna Robinson, who motored down from Hamden for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams of 1409 Union street entertained at dinner Sunday. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nunley and daughter Charlotte of Sciotoville. Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough and children, Rosemary, Agnes, Grace and Gerald of New Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrup, and gives about $2. Really and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

SOMETHING TO EAT

"Is it something to eat?" asked Misses Jack Sprat.

"That's an easy one," smiled the Riddle Lady.

"Is it something to eat?" asked Misses Jack Sprat.

"Yes!" said the Riddle Lady.

"Then I wish I'd win it," sighed Misses Sprat. "But I won't. I never guessed anything in my life and I know I'm not going to now."

"Is it a pie?" asked Jack Horner.

"My, no!" laughed the Riddle Lady. "Who ever heard of salt in pie? Besides I said it had a shell—not a crust. And I never saw an elephant eat a pie, did you?"

"No," Jack had to admit, "but maybe nobody ever tried it. I bet you an elephant could eat a pie at one bite."

"Well, that isn't the answer," declared the Riddle Lady. "Has anybody guessed the answer?"

"I know! I know! I know!" sang Nancy. "It's a peanut!"

"Right!" exclaimed the Riddle Lady. "And the prize is a whole bag of them. I just knew it was something to eat!" wheezed fat Misses Sprat, crowding nearer.

"Help yourself," said Nancy generously holding out the bag.

All the Riddle Landers had some—for it was a big bag—and Misses Sprat was satisfied. But Jack Horner can't see yet why he wasn't right.

Tomorrow is "Donation Day" for the Home for Aged Women, and the people of Portsmouth are reminded that donations of cereal, coffee, tea, dried fruits, soap, apples, potatoes, nuts, canned fruits and jellies will be thankfully received by the Board of Managers and also by the residents of the Home. The people of Portsmouth are asked to be as generous as they have always been this year, and those who feel inclined to do so may give cash donations to help defray this added expense.

An unusually interesting and unique entertainment will be given in the High School Auditorium on Thanksgiving evening at eight o'clock by the children of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Xenia, Ohio. The entertainment will be free and open to the public. A special invitation is extended to the members of the Baller Relief Corps and their families and friends. The affair is being given under the auspices of the Peabody Camp Spanish War Veterans, and they are anxious that the auditorium be filled when the entertainment begins at eight o'clock.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES — IN THE TOWER OF TICKS

Jack then decided to rap on the door that led to the Land of Ticks, when the cuckoo suddenly stopped cuckooing and a funny little fellow stuck his head out of a window and shouted, "You wonder what time it is, eh? Well, it's time for you to open up that door and walk right in."

And then the little fellow disappeared. Jack reached for the big knob on the door, but at that moment the door swung open. Again it was the funny little fellow. "Here I am again!" he laughed. "Welcome to the Land of Ticks. Bring your dog right in with you. He's welcome, too."

In a moment the great door swung shut again and Jack looked about him. Everywhere were clocks. Big ones, little ones, plain ones and queer ones. "And do you keep all these clocks going?" asked the little adventurer. "Oh, no," said the funny man, Ticky does that." (Continued).

SEND COUPON FOR A TEN-DAY TUBE

You Owe Yourself this dainty habit. Fight the film on teeth.

You men and women owe to yourself prettier, cleaner teeth. Teeth free from dingy film. Millions have learned the way to attain them. If you don't know it, please try it now.

Film is unclean

Film is that viscous coat you feel. It resists the tooth brush, and much of it clings and stays. Soon it becomes discolored, then forms dingy coats. That's why countless teeth are clouded more or less.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Under old methods, very few people, young or older, escaped these film-caused troubles.

These facts led dental science to seek for film combatants. Eventually two were found. One disintegrates the film, one removes it without harmful scouring.

Protect the Enamel

Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combatant which contains harsh grit.

Able authorities proved these methods effective. Then a new-type tooth paste was created to apply them daily. The name is Pepsodent.

Leading dentists the world over began to advise this method. Now, careful people of some 50 nations are employing it every day.

It brings many new effects

Pepsodent does other things, which research proved essential. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—there to neutralize mouth acids. It multiplies the starch digestant in saliva—there to digest starch deposits.

Soapy tooth pastes reduce these great protective agents. Pepsodent gives them manifold power.

Thus the use of Pepsodent brings astonishing results. They are quick and convincing. You will not, when you know them, ever go without them.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the film-coats disappear.

You will realize then how much this method means to you and yours. Cut out coupon now.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES — IN THE TOWER OF TICKS

Jack then decided to rap on the door that led to the Land of Ticks, when the cuckoo suddenly stopped cuckooing and a funny little fellow stuck his head out of a window and shouted, "You wonder what time it is, eh? Well, it's time for you to open up that door and walk right in."

And then the little fellow disappeared. Jack reached for the big knob on the door, but at that moment the door swung open. Again it was the funny little fellow. "Here I am again!" he laughed. "Welcome to the Land of Ticks. Bring your dog right in with you. He's welcome, too."

In a moment the great door swung shut again and Jack looked about him. Everywhere were clocks. Big ones, little ones, plain ones and queer ones. "And do you keep all these clocks going?" asked the little adventurer. "Oh, no," said the funny man, Ticky does that." (Continued).

Parade Precedes Thanksgiving Service

Members of Millbrook Council, Daughters of America of New Boston had a record meeting recently when a class initiation was held but their Thanksgiving services Sunday morning at the church were the New Boston M. E. church being filled to overflowing by Daughters of America, Jr. O. U. A. M. and their families and friends.

TEETH STAINS REMOVED

--For Few Cents--

No More Yellow Teeth—New Liquid Whitens Teeth Instantly

A new harmless liquid which—in just three minutes—gives dull, yellowish teeth a beautiful, pearly whiteness has been discovered. It is almost magical. You just brush your teeth with a few drops—and no matter how black or discolored they have been—stains are instantly bleached out and the teeth take on a charming new luster, a marvellous snowy whiteness.

Tobacco stains completely disappear after a few applications. BLEACH-O-DENT is a new scientific product perfected by dental specialists who know that there must be a better, safer and less expensive way to clean teeth than the old way of having them scoured with harmful abrasives. BLEACH-O-DENT is especially recommended for children's teeth, as the child's teeth are in a soft, formative period during which gritty pastes or powders should be avoided, and only an absolutely safe, cleaner like BLEACH-O-DENT, which liberates out stains but has absolutely no effect on the enamel, should be used.

Only the BLEACH-O-DENT today, a few cents for a full size bottle. Bring it back if not delighted. Sold by all drug stores such as Fisher & Scotch, Flood & Hulse, Stevens Cut Rate Drug Store, Jones Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

Sunday Great Day for Philathea Class

Sunday was probably the greatest day in the history of the Philathea class; there being 120 in attendance, this being 6 more than their record for last year, and they have merely made a start in their winter's work. There was much enthusiasm as the great throng of young women filed into the class room and many chairs had to be borrowed from the Baraca boys to accommodate the crowd.

The class has been divided into 12 divisions with competent leaders over each district, and all under the supervision of Mrs. G. L. Wasson, chairman of the absence committee.

The teacher of the class is Mrs. H. Stewart Tillis, with Miss Lillian Mitchell as assistant, Mrs. Clyde Virgin, president; Mrs. Ora Horton and Mrs. Woods, first and second vice presidents; Miss Ester Gullkey and Miss Mildred Bradbury, treasurer and assistant, and Miss Ella Bradbury and Mrs. Maxine Keeser, secretary and assistant secretary. The chair ladies of the different committees are as follows: Membership, Mrs. O. P. Haffner; Volunteer, Mrs. G. A. Winchell; Music, Mrs. Elmer Tetter; Social, Miss Luella Kanouse; Relief, Mrs. A. B. Canterbury; Missionary, Miss Lucinda Voten; Publicity, Miss Lillian Mitchell, and Devotional, Mrs. A. G. Winchell.

All young women of the city not attending Bible School elsewhere, will be given a most cordial welcome in this class. The business and social meeting of the class will be held this Tuesday evening in the class room with Mrs. Clyde Virgin as the hostess, and all members and friends of the class are invited.

NO INDICTMENT. IRONTON, November 27.—From the fact that not a single indictment was returned by the grand jury in connection with the city election of November 6 it may safely be assumed that the many irregularities complained of, if they had any basis in fact, were regarded by that body as purely technical and that they did not comprise any violations of the law.

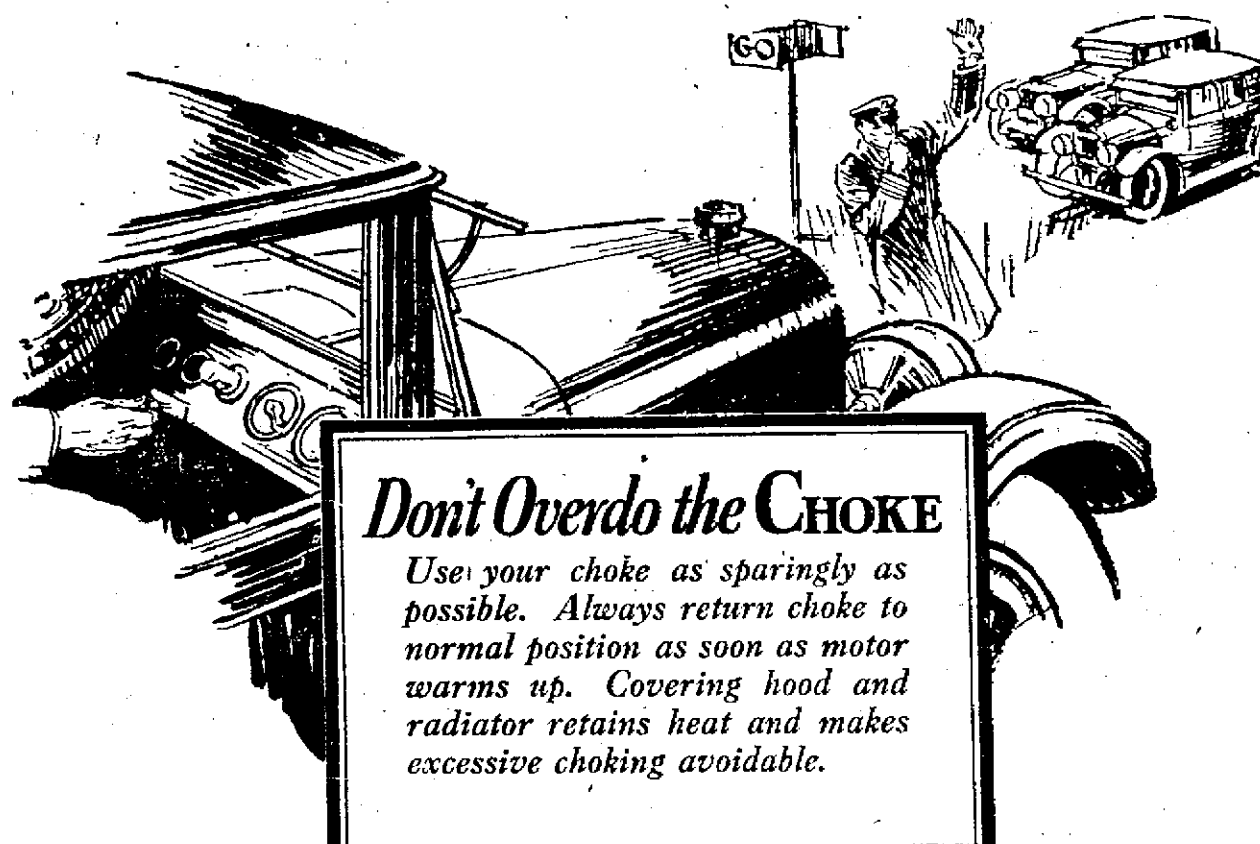

CALVARY BAPTIST NOTES. TUESDAY—Intermediates at 4:30 p. m. Chicken Supper served from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m. WEDNESDAY—Juniors at 4:00 p. m. Prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m. THURSDAY—Thanksgiving services at Grandview Avenue Church at 10:00 a. m. FRIDAY—Kings' Daughters at 4:00 p. m.

Auto Stolen; Recovered. GREENUP, Ky., November 27.—A Ford touring car belonging to John Sturzell, employed in the C. & O. yards at Russell, was stolen while he was working. It was driven to Wartland, where it was abandoned. The car was not damaged.

Doing Nicely. The many friends of Mrs. Otto Barthol, of 2121 Eighth street who underwent an operation at Hempstead Hospital last Thursday, will be pleased to learn that she is getting along nicely.

Central Presbyterian Church News

A Thanksgiving sale will be held at the Silver Furniture Company by the Ladies' Aid Society next Wednesday. Mrs. Brown will be at the store at 9:30 a. m. to receive donations. The Wednesday evening prayer meeting will be held as usual at 7:00 o'clock. Last week we had the largest congregation we have ever had for prayer meeting. Let's increase the number this week. Their regular monthly meeting at the church next Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock. The Mizpah Class will hold their bazaar and bake sale at Tracy-Craig's store on Galia street, next Saturday beginning at 10:00 a. m. Bring your donations promptly, please.

Don't Overdo the CHOKE
Use your choke as sparingly as possible. Always return choke to normal position as soon as motor warms up. Covering hood and radiator retains heat and makes excessive choking avoidable.

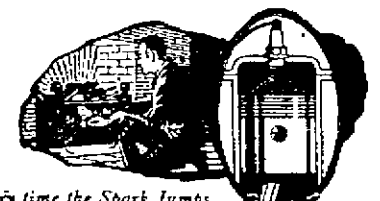

Guard against Trouble

Reasonable care in the use of your choke will guard you against such troubles as excessive carbon deposit, with resulting uneven firing and loss of power; diluted crank-case oil; and needless waste of fuel. Use this easily-abused convenience only when you must—and do not neglect to return it to its normal position as soon as possible.

Red Crown Starts Cold Motors Easily

With Red Crown Gasoline in your tank you will find it easy to prevent excessive choking. For each year, during the colder months, the boiling points of Red Crown are lowered at the refinery. This makes Red Crown more quick-acting, makes it "gassify" easily and start cold motors quickly. But this change does not break the famous complete chain of boiling points which provides the heat power and range required to operate a motor efficiently and economically under all the varying conditions of weather, engine speed and load.

The complete chain of boiling points in Red Crown and their effect in the automobile motor are like the action of paper, kindling and coal in the familiar grate fire.

Every time the Spark Jumps It Sets Off a Well-Laid Fire. The low initial boiling point—the "paper"—gives quick, easy starting. The intermediate range of boiling points—the "kindling"—provides smooth acceleration and insures clean burning. And the higher boiling points—the "coal"—produce the full power that means big-mileage economy. Guard against trouble. Always fill at the Red Crown Sign—at 450 Standard Service Stations and at hundreds of dealers throughout Ohio.

South Webster To Get New Grade School Building

The Board of Education of Bloomington township voted last night to go ahead with plans for a new grade school building for the village of South Webster, the new structure to cost about $15,000. The building will be a six-room fire-proof structure erected within a few feet of the present high school. It will contain a modern standard size gym combined with an auditorium. The present high school houses two grades of the elementary school, while an old frame building provides room for the other six grades. With the new structure in use the eight elementary grades will be in the one building and the frame structure can be abandoned. The present combination gym and auditorium in the high school will be put up into three class rooms for high school pupils.

Architects DeVoss and Donaldson have been commissioned to complete plans for the structure and to advertise for bids, the contract to be let in thirty days.

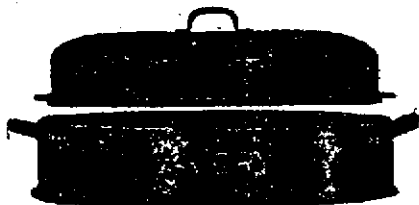

Condition Is Serious

Norman Cordie, 10, of Candy Run, who was injured when an N. & W. passenger train struck the automobile in which he was riding with his father and brothers, Grover and Mildred Cordie, last Thursday, when both the latter were killed, continues in a precarious condition in Hempstead hospital.

The patient has never fully regained consciousness and he is constantly growing weaker. The lad's condition is due to concussion and shock and little hope is held out for his recovery.

FALLS FROM MOVING BREAD TRUCK; DIES FROM HIS INJURIES

Nauvoo Man Fatally Hurt While On Way To Work

Losing his balance and falling from a bakery truck on which he intended to ride to Portsmouth, proved fatal to Pearl Dougherty, of Nauvoo, 41, married, a Peabody Paving Brick Company employee. This morning, injuries sustained by him at 4:30 o'clock at Union Mills resulting in his death at Seaboard hospital at 11 a. m. Dougherty suffered a fracture of the skull at the base of the brain, a broken collar bone and serious internal injuries caused probably by a broken rib puncturing the right lung. A post-mortem was to be held late this afternoon by Coroner Virgil Fowler to determine the exact cause of death. The injured man never regained consciousness.

The bread truck from which the man fell was one of the Certified Bread Company's machines from Ashland and was driven by Bert George of Dry Run. Two other men were riding in the front of the machine along with the driver and Mr. Dougherty.

For several months Dougherty had been riding from Nauvoo to the city on the bakery truck with George. Mr. Dougherty never waited on the truck, or the driver of the machine never waited on Mr. Dougherty, but it so happened that

GLASS BLOWER TO REVEAL SKILL

BEFORE MEMBERS OF KIWANIS CLUB

A practical demonstration in the art of glass blowing will be given before the Kiwanis club Wednesday noon, at their luncheon at the Mary Louise, by a member of the Myers company, now exhibiting at 739 Fifth street.

For many years glass blowing has been a highly developed art, but for several years has not been demonstrated in this city and no doubt the Kiwanians will be much interested in the demonstration. Glass in all forms, both plain and colored in novelties and spun glass effects will be done before the Kiwanians and at the completion of the demonstration the members will be presented with souvenirs. Mr. Meyers, who will be in personal charge of the demonstration gave an exhibition at Athens, last week, which was attended by students of the Ohio University. The week previous he gave an exhibition before the civic clubs of Richmond, Ind. He is said to be the greatest expert glass blower in the country, having followed his profession for more than twenty years. The Kiwanis club has an exhibition at 739 Fifth street a steam engine made of glass—and it runs as smoothly as a watch.

Two Cases Passed By

Ironton Grand Jury

IRONTON, O., November 27.—Two deaths in which murder had been charged, were ignored or passed by the recent grand jury after investigation, no indictments against the parties charged having been returned in either case. In both cases many witnesses were called before the grand jury and it is understood thorough inquiries were conducted into both.

The first of these was the case of Nevada Wood, charged with first degree murder in the death of her husband, William Wood, who died, apparently from pneumonia poisoning. His relatives, however, charged by him died from the effects of strychnine poison, which they alleged was administered by the wife. The warrant against Mrs. Wood was sworn out by a brother of the deceased.

The second case was that of Wm. Ellis, Marshal of Proctorville, who was charged with murder in connection with the death of Robert Eaton. Eaton was shot while the Marshal was arresting him at Proctorville, and died several days later in a Huntington hospital.

Have You A Cough?

Here's How to Get Rid of the Cough

And Rebuild the Body

Wheelerburg, Ohio.—"My wife had pneumonia about six years ago and it left her with a dreadful cough. At night she would cough until she was exhausted. She could get no rest or sleep. Her stomach was so bad that she could not retain food. She went down in flesh until she was merely skin and bones. I had tried many doctors and medicines but still she grew worse. At last a neighbor who had relied upon Dr. Pierce's medicines for years, told me about Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and before she had taken all of the first bottle she began to improve. By the time she had the third bottle taken her cough had entirely stopped. She gained in flesh and weighed twenty-nine pounds more than before she took the 'Discovery'."—Edw. Pinson.

Go at once to your neighborhood drug store and get the 'Discovery' in liquid and you'll be surprised at the way you'll pick up.—advertisement.

"And I'll just fine you $25 additional for contempt of court," said acting Police Judge Harry Price, "and take off your hat—I don't allow the jury to be abused in my court," added the judge.

Two Separate Ovens for Coal and Gas. Simple, Safe-Trouble-Proof-Cooking Capacity When Wanted to Feed 20 People

Constructed on the only correct principle: Separate ovens for coal and gas. No dampers. No special flues. With the large gas oven in the most convenient place, and with the coal oven above heated by direct draft. Saves lots of fuel, makes the method of baking in either oven the same. Anyone can operate it. The remarkably small amount of fuel required to operate this range at full capacity cannot be equaled by any other range on the market. Its cooking capacity is equal to many hotel ranges, but takes less space than the smallest cabinet range. When you examine or use this range, and realize its simplicity, and its absolute dependability, you wonder why someone has not thought of this type of construction before. The arrangement of the ovens and flues is quite different from any other range on the market, and so simple that it requires no special instructions to operate. It is always ready for any purpose, and can be depended upon to do the baking and cooking with either coal or gas, efficiently and surely.

Davidson Chemical Has Spectacular Career

NEW YORK, N. Y., November 27.—Erratic movements by Davidson Chemical, which again fluctuated with a wide radius, served to unsettle today's stock market, although there were intervals of strength particularly among the railroad shares. Some of the pivotal stocks also found good support. Davidson Chemical, a wholly owned subsidiary of the American Chemical Company, was scheduled to meet after the close of the market, presumably to consider a possible merger with Studebaker, was unusually active and fell several points lower in free offerings during the last half hour. The closing was unsettled. Sales approximated 1,150,000 shares.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Stock prices moved irregularly higher at the opening of today's stock market. U. S. Steel and Baldwin opened higher but American Can, Studebaker lost ground. Operators on the long side ran into more profit-taking and bear selling but initial offerings were well absorbed, the relatively few losses being limited to fractions.

In erratic gyrations, Davidson Chemical, a new 1923 high, dropped to 77 1/2, rallied to 79 and then broke to 70, or nearly six points below last night's high. U. S. Steel Iron Pipe advanced 1 1/2 to a new high and gains of a point or more were registered by Atlantic Refining, Loew's, Stewart-Warner, Schulte, Willys-Overland preferred and several others, while Atlantic Coast Line, Maxwell Motors A, General Cigar and Consolidated Paper were more. Foreign exchanges opened lower.

Continuance of wild fluctuations in Davidson Chemical, which sold down to 69 1/2, or to points below its early high, unsettled the list around the end of the first hour and caused a temporary suspension of pool operations in other quarters. United States Cast Iron Pipe forfeited its 2 1/2 points gain, and Maxwell Motors A, Central Leather, preferred, Computing, Tabulating and Recording, Congoleum, Endicott-Johnson and Tidewater Oil sold down to 2 1/2 points. Subsequent rallies of 3 to 5 points in Davidson Chemical, resulted in a fairly steady appearance. Call money opened at 4 1/2 per cent.

Corn, which opened unchanged to 1/2 higher, May 72 1/2 to 73 1/4, climbed as much as one cent a bushel before options were checked.

Prices closed firm, 1/4 to 3/8 net higher, December 1.02 1/2 to 1.03, and May 1.08 1/2 to 1.09 1/2.

Oats, in sympathy with corn, started a shade to 1/2 higher, May 4 1/2 to 4 3/4, and later scored slight gains all around.

Provisions were easy owing to a decline in hog values.

Heavy Offerings Fail To Shake Curb

NEW YORK, N. Y., November 27.—There were indications in the curb market today that advances recently established have been effective in bringing in a large supply and in some issues, it was stated that the market seemed to the traders to be full of stocks. The recessions, however, that have been the result of the increased offerings were only moderate compared with the higher levels that have been established in many issues.

Some of the new issues that were made prominent in recent trading also were in supply. Dunhill International in which trading started yesterday

Mission Services Close at Holy Redeemer

The mission services conducted by the missionaries, Rev. Fathers Henry and Adelbert, members of the Order of the Passionists, were brought to a solemn close Sunday night, at the church of the Holy Redeemer. At half past seven the spacious church auditorium was crowded; every seat was taken and many were obliged to stand during the services.

From the beginning to the end of the Mission, it was one series of splendid climaxes which culminated Sunday night in a most happy and impressive ceremony never to be forgotten by all who had the privilege to witness or take part in the exercises.

During the whole week the five o'clock morning services were well attended. At this hour Mass was said and a short practical instruction delivered. At the eight o'clock Mass, the faithful were present in large numbers. At this Mass another beautiful sermon was given.

The Children's Mission services took place on three afternoons, when these boys and girls in words befitting their youthful understandings were instructed in their duties to explanations of the ten commandments to their Maker, parents and God, home and country. Could these meats in relation of children to their constituted authorities of nation and state, have been broadcast of heard and heeded by all citizens, as well as young, the fundamental principles of reverence, divine reverence for authority of God, good parents and that of the nation and state, would have been realized as the most urgent, needed and beneficial blessings of American social life. As the parents, so the children, the children, so the nation, as the people so the American republic.

During the evenings of the week, the Church was crowded with men and women, both Catholic and non-Catholic, who heard most plain, eloquent, counselling expositions of Christian faith and truths. It was a happy combination of uniting the Forty Hour's Devotion and Mission services. As a matter of fact it is most consoling to pastor, missionaries and congregation to know that not less than three thousand persons received Communion Sunday morning at the 9:30 services the Forty Hour's Devotion was solemnly closed. After Mass, the children who made the Mission, after making profession of faith and renewal of baptismal vows, in solemn manner received the Papal blessing and the Papal indulgence. Sunday evening, at the half past seven o'clock, every seat in the spacious auditorium was taken, many being obliged to stand during the services. All who had the pleasure of hearing the Sermon on "Hold Fast" or "The Crown of Life" will never forget the most beautiful, inspiring and consoling truth which the reverend speaker proclaimed in words that fairly burned their way into the souls of the hearers. After the Sermon, the speaker called upon every one present to raise his right hand. Immediately a thousand hands of those in the sanctuary, auditorium and gallery were lifted above all heads, presenting as it were a forest of hands, symbolical of so many minds and hearts raised to God determined to live up to their God resolutions made during the Mission.

BUTTON LODGED IN CHILD'S NOSE

Finding a shoe button in her nose this morning, Edith, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Redwine, of 3839 Stanton avenue, New Boston, began playing with it.

When she screamed her mother learned that the button had lodged in her nose. Dr. Harold Schierman was summoned and he had to place the child under an anesthetic to remove the button.

Republicans Seek To Compose Differences In Organization

WASHINGTON, November 27.—Views of senate and house progressives both as to organization and legislation in the sixty-eighth congress gradually are being crystallized.

House members of the Republican progressive group are in the midst of a series of formal conferences to determine their program. At the same time, Republican progressives in the senate are holding informal meetings for general exchanges of ideas out of which they hope will come concrete plans, particularly with reference to farm, railroad and other important legislation.

Organization and tax reduction continue to be the central themes of discussion, with Republican leaders seeking to compose the differences within their party in advance of their organization conferences next Saturday. They are seeking to avoid especially any delay in the organization of the house and senate and are understood to be prepared to make concessions in the interest of party harmony.

Representative Nelson, of Wisconsin, chairman of the house progressive group, has stated that on the eve of the majority conference in the house the progressives will complete formulation of their program for re-organization of house committees and modification of house rules. They will go into the Republican conference prepared to make a fight, they say, unless there is an agreement in advance of the conference.

Refuse To Quote 'Em

NEW YORK, November 27.—(By the Associated Press)—For the first time since the German mark started on its spectacular decline, New York banks today refused even to quote it nominally. Previously the banks, which had discontinued regular dealings in German exchange, were willing to make a nominal rate. Today, however, it was impossible to obtain from them even the commercial quotation.

Bankers were agreed that there had been no mark transactions in New York for some time. One firm doing a general brokerage business quoted marks at 20 cents a trillion, but that figure was obviously too high as compared with the London rate, and was believed to be the selling price to travellers going abroad.

Says State

Can Save

COLUMBUS, O., November 27.—(By the United Press)—Pointing out that the state can save $165,000 a year interest, State Auditor Tracy today recommended to the building commission that the proposed new state office building be erected out of the general revenue fund instead of out of the money borrowed from state industrial commission.

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE OPENS DECEMBER 4

MANY WILLING WORKERS TO ASSIST IN MAKING IT A SUCCESS

Headquarters for Portsmouth's Community Chest campaign, December 4, established in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, is one of the busiest places in town this week, as plans are being perfected for the drive, which is to raise $50,000 for seven of Portsmouth's social agencies. To-day's mail carried letters from the executive committee to the larger industries in town, asking that they start organization work in their respective places of business to care for the solicitation of employees and to expedite the work of the teams that will canvass the town next week. The citizens' committee is being enrolled so successfully that the assembly room of the Security Bank will not be large enough to accommodate the meeting announced for Friday night, when teams will be organized; the meeting, will therefore, be held in the basement of the Public Library. Postal notices will go out to workers tomorrow advising them of this first organization meeting.

On Saturday a huge chest six feet long, four feet in width and five feet deep, the gift of the local Exchange Club, will be placed on the Gallia-Street Esplanade, as a constant reminder that the Community Chest must be filled. The attention of every passerby will be called to the seven great needs, which the chest must meet: the work of the Bureau of Community Service, American Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Home for Aged Women, Salvation Army and the Community Chorus.

In Favor of Defendants

George Evans, Murray Harper and Chester Conklin, were given a hearing in Squire George Morgan's court Tuesday afternoon as the result of charges filed against them by Zack Thacker, of Pine Creek, who claimed the men took a Ford ton truck belonging to him. It developed at the hearing that the men took the machine on account of Thacker's failure to pay his notes in the sum of $153 given when the truck was purchased. The men claimed Thacker told them to come and take the machine as he could not meet the notes. Attorney A. R. Campbell appeared for Thacker. Squire Morgan decided the case in favor of the defendants.

The Fedora boy was knocked under the wheels of a trolley car and his body cut in two.

Jury Waived; Case Submitted To Court

When the suit of Three States Coal Company, of Bluefield, W. Va., against Vernon Coal Company, of Radnor, was called for trial in common pleas court Tuesday morning, both sides waived their right of trial by jury and by agreement the case is being submitted to Judge Thomas for determination.

The Bluefield concern brought the action seeking damages in the sum of $1,000.64 for alleged breach of contract for delivery of coal, claiming that it purchased from the defendant company fifteen cars of coal at an agreed price of $2.75 a ton f. o. b., the latter's mines at Ft. Gay, W. Va., and complained that after shipping two cars defendant refused to make further delivery because the price of coal advanced materially.

The defense denied entering into the contract alleged, but admitted undertaking to fill an order for 15 cars of coal and contended that if there was any breach it was on the part of plaintiff in failing to comply with an express provision of the contract to pay for coal as delivered and not to judgment for the sum of $120.25 on its cross petition claimed to be due for the second car of coal shipped. The defense further claimed that it had trouble in collecting for the first car and after learning that the plaintiff company had no financial rating and was irresponsible, refused to make further shipments.

Attorneys Miller and Searl appeared for plaintiff and Attorney B. F. Kimble for defense.

She claims that they separated last July because of his conduct towards her.

Seeks Divorce and Former Name
Sarah E. McCune seeks divorce and restoration to her former name of Long in her suit filed in Common Pleas court today against Okey McCune, whom she married in June, 1908.

In her petition filed through Attorney John W. Long, of Waverly, plaintiff says no children were born to the union and then complains of neglect and willful absence, declaring that during the time she lived with McCune he refused and failed to support her properly and avers that for the past five years he has been willfully absent from her. In addition to a divorce and her former name plaintiff asks that defendant may be forever barred from all interest in her real estate.

Charges Cruelty and Desertion
Mary Ogletree charges cruelty and desertion in her suit for divorce from Home Ogletree, present address unknown, filed in Common Pleas court today.

In her petition, through Attorney Horace L. Small, plaintiff says she was married to defendant at Louisville, Ky., in October, 1922, and then complains that during the time she lived with him he pursued a constant course of ill treatment, declaring that he frequently struck and abused her, causing her bodily injury, besides, she complains he finally deserted her and disappeared in December, 1922, since which time she claims she has had no knowledge of his whereabouts.

Miles of Track at Russell

The Ironton Register says: Twenty miles of new tracks will be laid by the C. and O. Railway Co. in the proposed enlargement of its yard at Russell, it is understood.

The extension plans include the filling in of a large area of low-lying land just west of Russell and the construction of tracks, shops and the like on the improved section.

It is understood that the main line of the road will be moved out of the yard, over against the hill and there will be no interference with the main line traffic by reason of switching or for other causes.

Supt. Butler has taken charge of the newly created Russell division and is organizing it efficiently and well and it is believed that the yard will be able to increase its efficiency greatly within the next few months.

With the addition of the new tracks the C. & O. will have one of the largest yards in the world at Russell and it is believed that the Lexington division shops will be moved to Russell before long.

Two hundred men have been placed at work on the improvements at the Russell yards and this number will doubtless be increased. The work is estimated, will require two years for completion and will cost a huge sum of money.

The increase and extension of the Russell yard will add greatly to the number of employees and will contribute greatly to the growth of both Russell and Ironton.

The C. and O. depot is to be moved from its present location a distance of about fifty or a hundred yards to the river side and a new depot will be built. It is said that a handsome new depot will also be erected a short distance to the west of Russell, to handle the Raceland traffic.

An underground crossing just west of the site of the present depot is also planned and it will likely be approved by the Russell council as it will immensely contribute to the growth and prosperity of the community, allowing speedier and easier flow of traffic in and about the city.

SYRACUSE AND JOHNS HOPKINS WIN BIG HONORS AT CROSS COUNTRY MEET

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Syracuse and Johns Hopkins won the big honors at the fifteenth annual collegiate cross-country run over the new Van Cortlandt park course yesterday afternoon.

Syracuse, aided considerably by two junior stars, E. P. Case and Paul Middleton, captured the team championship from the largest field of starters ever to compete in such an event, while Johns Hopkins, through the brilliant and gritty performance of Verne Booth, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, acquired the individual title.

Booth finished more than 100 yards in advance of his nearest competitor. His time, 32 minutes, 10 seconds, established the record for the night.

J. G. Bright, of Carnegie Tech., who finished second, and H. W. Raymond and A. S. Hillman, both of Maine, who finished third and fourth, respectively, performed far better than was expected, while Blumer McLane, of Pennsylvania, H. Nazro, of Dartmouth, who were predicted as Booth's chief rivals for individual honors, fell far below the general expectation. McLane finished seventh, while Kirby Nazro finished in thirtieth position.

STATE BASKETEERS ARE TUNING UP

With football togs being packed in moth balls, followers of Ohio State athletic teams are turning their attention to the basketball season, which opens in less than two weeks. Although the Buckeyes have only one veteran from last winter's team, hope is again beating high in the hearts of the fans.

Admitting that prospects are much brighter than when he came here a year ago to inaugurate a new system, Coach Harold Olsen, former Wisconsin star, foresees a faster and more rangy squad than that which represented the Buckeyes a year ago. Disclaiming championship possibilities, Olsen says, "We are far from the college."

Promising basketball candidates who have been on the gridiron squad are expected to turn out for basketball within a few days. As soon as they do the squad will work out daily instead of four nights a week as at present.

Mittie The Captain

Johnny Mittie, diminutive forward, who was one of the leading scorers of the Big Ten last winter, is the sole veteran toiling on the present squad. He is also captain of the quintet. Two others, Mattson and Hald, may get eligible next month.

The football athletes who may don court togs shortly include "Corkie" Cunningham, Mr. Vernon sophomore, who was rated as an all-American interscholastic player in his high school days. He and Keith De Voe, Lima, Ind., who has been on the team since last season, are the most promising candidates for the floor team. "Red" Seifert, Evansville, Ind., product of Harold Wendler, basketball experience, are among the other candidates who are basketball possibilities. "Red" Young, football center, won his basketball "O" two years ago. He is another guard possibility.

STRIKING GETS DECISION
BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Young Striking, school boy light heavyweight of Mecon, Ga., was awarded the decision over Joe Egan of Dorchester after a dull ten-round bout here last night. Striking weighed 166 pounds and his opponents 163.

Football Facts

QUESTION
When Notre Dame played West Point a year ago there was considerable complaint over the use of a certain shift play as employed by Coach Rockne. Similar disputes came up in games in which Penn State and Georgia Tech were contesting teams. What was the basis of the complaint against the use of the shift play as employed by Notre Dame, Georgia Tech and Penn State? Since no such protest has been made this fall against any of the teams evidently the matter has been straightened out?

ANSWER
The efficiency of any football play largely lies in the speed with which the formation is started. In using the shift play Notre Dame, Georgia Tech and Penn State got away with a bang. In other words literally swept the opposition off its feet, before it had a chance to get set for the play. The claim was that the players were in motion before the ball was passed, making the shift illegal. The argument over the shift was made possible by the different interpretation that was placed on the rule by various officials. While it is a difficult matter to watch the feet of players used in the shift formation as well as the ball, officials have so sized up the play that little or no argument is heard now about starting before the ball is passed. The officials simply insist that there shall be a slight pause after the players have shifted, and that the ball be not passed until the men in the play have momentarily hesitated.

NO DECISION YET ON ROSE TOURNAMENT GAME
Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 27.—Decision as to whether the University of California football team champions of the Pacific conference will accept the invitation of the team to meet the Navy eleven in Pasadena Tournament of Roses to play the annual east-west game in Pasadena New Year's Day, probably will be made at a conference here next Wednesday, according to Graduate Athletic Manager Corbely.

No officials would comment on the possibility of California accepting.

SLOATE '24 CAPTAIN
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 27.—Joe Sloate, of Akron, Ohio, was elected captain of the Indiana University football squad for 1924, at its annual meeting of the team last season. He played fullback this season. He is an all-around athlete.

S. R. O. Signs To Be Up At Olympic Games

PARIS, Nov. 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—The French Olympic games committee already has hung up the "standing word only" sign at the Colombes stadium, although the official opening of the 1924 Olympic games still is several months away.

The stadium provides accommodations for 70,000 spectators. There will be 20,000 reserved seats and standing room for the remaining 50,000 persons attending.

The American Olympic committee has requested 5,000 seats for American spectators. Great Britain has asked for 5,000, and Sweden and Italy want 1,500 each. The remaining 7,000 seats have virtually all been reserved by the smaller nations, leaving hardly any for the French committee to dispose of to French sports lovers.

DREAM VANISHES IN SMOKE

THE life-time ambition of Joseph Hull, of Uniontown, New Jersey, was to accumulate $10,000. He toiled and he sweated, he pinched and he saved. He didn't believe in banks, so he kept his boardings about his house, hiding them under the floor of his little hut. Every time he accumulated $1,000 he dug a separate hole for it. Each night he counted all his accumulation. He did this Friday night and found he had $9,184.

This was so near the goal that he was mightily elated and sat down to enjoy the pleasure of contemplation. Before doing so he filled his stove full of coal. Dreaming he went to sleep. As he slept the smoldering fire quickened and gradually became a roaring furnace, shooting flames through the short pipe over the top of the cabin. Flying sparks dropped on the roof and set it afire.

After awhile sings and darts of pain began to disturb his pleasant dreams. Then he woke to find fire crackling and seething all about him. He made a desperate effort to salvage $184 under the hearth, but falling cinders sent him scurrying to the outside to watch and listen to the fiery element whistle and dance over the destruction of his fortune.

Hull was over sixty. For years he had taken the chances of robbery and fire because he mistrusted the honesty of his fellowmen. Poor man, he did not know there were things more uncertain, more treacherous than human beings. It never occurred to him that it is because business and banks are ordinarily faithful and safe that he was enabled to lay aside his $9,184—the thought never came to him that every dollar had come to him through a bank and most all of his savings were in the notes of national banks.

WE DO WONDER

WE could marvel at reform in Ironton and prepare to hand our neighbor a golden harp, if we did not always have an uneasy suspicion as to the motives that lie back of the virtuous spasms that periodically afflict our fractious or rather fractious suburbanites. We have deep respect for the engineering of law, but all the same we would like to know who set the wheels in motion that resulted in a few citizens of Ironton being indicted for the heinous crime of betting on world series base ball games, elections and chancing off automobiles. Was it just simple pure indignation at law violation or was it desire to "get" somebody that caused information to be laid before the grand jury by some individual, unknown? Were all of the men guilty of betting on the World Series and the election in Ironton brought to the attention of the grand jury, or were just the goats trotted out to the clink of handcuffs while the sheep were carefully herded at the home ranch?

Of course the grand jury that "seen its duty and done it noble" is to be congratulated on its righteousness and on its going on the information at hand, but it seems to us the grand jury should have gone a step or two further. It should have sought more information and either indicted all the rest of the Ironton sports or else have given them a clean bill of health by proclaiming it had indicted the only wicked gamblers the town afforded.

Now Belgium has gone to gobbling up things German. She'll never get back the tenth of that of which she was despoiled, no matter how diligently she pursues her new policy.

England is going to hold an election, next Thursday, so we may assume that in the attention that attracts, there will not be the usual output of crises for a day or two.

France seems to be cultivating many charming ways to make herself despised. Her agricultural department has issued a pamphlet in which the Italians are accused of being cowards during the war. France apparently forgets she not only needed, but was justly calling for the help of every man she could get to release her from the clutches of her enemy.

Base ball passed out awhile back and Thanksgiving will wind up foot ball. Then, we suppose, the country will find the leisure to devote itself somewhat to such trivial things as work and business.

Among all the weird things that politics have produced is the rumor that Magnus Johnson and Henry Cabot Lodge have formed an alliance offensive and defensive. Won't they present a spectacle for gods and men to gaze at, entwined in each other's arms in the United States senate?

Post Office Is Robbed

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Someone has said the most logical point to start seeing New York is at the southern tip of the island—the Battery. It is here New York bulks with historical tradition. There is a meaning way back in history for every curve and twist.

Dutch wooden shoes beat out the paths and sheep used to graze on every spot where a sky-scraper now pierces the heavens. It was at the dingy triangular part at the foot of Broadway that Governor Peter Minuit in 1624 gave the Indians $24 for the whole of Manhattan Island.

Broad Street—the home of the money grubbers—was once a canal and the first settlers built their homes along its banks. The first settlers were four families of the Walloons who arrived from Holland in 1623. Williams Street was once Mill Street, so named for the old horse mill where Sunday meetings were held.

The narrowest street in town is Nassau. It was originally "Pie Woman's Lane" and is still lined with little lunch counter places, where stenographers and clerks go for a hurried mid-day snack. At noon Nassau bars vehicular traffic and pedestrians overrun the street.

Fraunces Tavern is not much changed by time. It is the place where Washington bade farewell to his troops. Luncheon is served here and it is filled with mementos of that touching period. In those days houses were rented for $20 a year and the town was lighted by lanterns hung from a pole at every seventh house.

Big signs on the street corners warned that all dogs allowed loose would be shot. Each settler was forced to sweep in front of his home each Friday morning. Wall Street was then overrun with pigs, but of a different variety from those that now flood the street.

Where the fine statue of George Washington stands in front of the Sub Treasury there was the whipping post for criminals and also the cage where offenders were exposed to taunts of passers-by.

I asked a sight seeing barker who traverses the Bowery what point of interest attracted the visitor more than anything else. He said more people asked to see the original home of Steve Brody's saloon at No. 114 Bowery than any other.

There has been nothing triumphant about the appearance of the Marlonettes in New York. The actress puppets thrilled Paris and London for two years. Although called "little" they are really life-sized. It is interesting to see them move their eyes, lips, scratch their ears, use fans, drink from bottles and apparently speak, sing and dance. Yet the strings can be seen from any part of the house and this spoils the illusion for most anyone.

Death and taxes are also gittin' to be pretty certain. A hoodlegger kid jump in a high-necked car, or dart up an alley, but most any dry officer ought to be able to overtake a brewer.

Now and then one sees a touch of real home life in New York. Passing along Madison Avenue a caretaker in one of the mansions had left his basement window uncurtained. His wife was knitting beside an open fire place. The caretaker in his shirt sleeves sat at a table reading by lamp light. At his feet slept a big Collie dog. A sign over the bed in knitted red bore the inscription: "God Bless Our Home!"

Passers-by stopped until quite a crowd had gathered. There was a reverential air of silence—and they moved away as though tremendously impressed.

Still another homelike touch is the itinerant scissors grinder who goes from door to door with the mill stone about his neck. He rings out bell and hallooos his greeting. There is one in the Bronx who has a pet goat that accompanies him everywhere. Despite the high cost of living the grinders' prices have not advanced.

Doc Koko's KOLUM

AT ARLINGTON

(By Neil Hopkins Hughes)
Out in the sleeping city
There now and then they lie
Our boys' teeth sighing breezes
As the long, long days go by.

Unlike the oaks above them
Where gnarled old branches grow,
The dates on the small white crosses
Marked the years of the soldier few.

The soft wind of summer
Once swept o'er the graves of green,
Flowers had bloomed beside them,
Painted by hands unseen.

In and out through the winding crosses,
Sadness stalked from the everywhere,
The falling leaf, the fading flowers,
And the soldier sleeping there.

Then there came a beautiful vision,
That mine eyes had failed to see
The dying world and our laddie boy
Awake at morn's reveille.

Changed Man.

Nine-year-old Ruth held up her

"Why—er—I'd like a loan of $10."
"Just right. I haven't a cent with me."

Death and taxes are also gittin' to be pretty certain. A hoodlegger kid jump in a high-necked car, or dart up an alley, but most any dry officer ought to be able to overtake a brewer.

ME AND MINE—BY BRIGGS

Wise Jottings.
Temptation never fails to come to those who wait.
Life isn't in holding a good hand, but in playing a poor hand well.
Love may be blind, yet a girl can see more in the man of her choice than a physician can with the aid of an X-ray.

The world applauds the woman who forgives an erring husband, but it gives a man the laugh who forgives an erring wife.

If fond lovers were to talk their sweet nothings into a phonograph, how it would shock them to hear the reproduction ground out a few years hence.

Among the Doctors.
"Germany has a remarkable number of men who have the right to be called 'doctor'."
"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "I fancy that the health of the country is none the worse because most of them carry brief cases instead of medicine cases."

No Need to Look Further.
"I want damages!" shouted the bruised and battered man who had been thrashed by a rival.

BERTON BRADLEY'S POEM
The Proper Season
(By Berton Bradley)
SUMMER time was made for lovers:
When the moonlight gently hovers
O'er a world sublime,
Full of places meant for kisses
Which the blind world wholly misses;
Summer's lover time.

AUTUMN time is sweetheart season.
Brisk air gives an ample reason
When hearts beat in rhyme
For a ride or stroll together
In the golden sunny weather:
Autumn's lover time.

WINTER time was made for lovers.
When the snow about us hovers
Then the weather's prime
For a two-some in the ingle,
(Where the fun in being single?)
Winter's lover time.

SPRING! Ah, Spring is time for mating.
When the air is palpating
With a tender thrill:
Study of the facts discloses
All the year was made for lovers
And—they use it all!

"I think," replied his friend, after surveying him critically, "that if you look in the glass you'll find you've got 'em."—London Answers.

Fully informed.
"Does your husband tell you what he does with his money?"
"He doesn't have to tell me," replied the woman with a weary expression. "He reads and talks about nothing but horse races."

Mrs. Marque Dies.
Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Hattie Steele Marque, wife of Rev. H. L. Marque, who died in a hospital in Denver, Colo., on November 20. She had been ill for a long time. Mrs. Marque was about 43 years of age. She had been away from Portsmouth about twelve years, but had visited here several times since. The family has been living near Omaha, Neb., since moving from Salt Lake City. Surviving is the husband, who is not now active in the ministry, and a son, Thurman, at home.

Any Luck?
George Marsh, Orville Lynd and Henry Hugenberg spent the week-end hunting on George Lynd's farm, near South Point.
